

Virtual mobility in Campus-net;

Universidad Nacional de Educación a Distancia

UNED

Sebastián Rubén Gómez Palomo

Virtual mobility in Campus-net;

Students have the opportunity to study in other universities without moving, using information and communication technologies. Virtual Campus.

Students receive the recognition of coursed credits in their own university.

Virtual mobility in Campus-net;

- Started in 2011.
- Virtual Mobility Program for UG students.
- UNED CAMPUS NET.
- Fundings from the Spanish Ministry of Education.
- Campus of International Excellence (CEI).

Virtual mobility in Campus-net;

Preparatory Phase - Course 2011-2012.

- Initial budget € 60,000 financed by the ME.
- Partners were invited to participate, meetings were organized and academic networks were created.
- Agreements and procedures were established.
- A scholarship program was established for materials and Internet connection (scholarships of 150 euros).
- Once the basics of the project were established, the first call for mobility 2012-2013 was published.

Virtual mobility in Campus-net;

First Call - Course 2012-2013.

1 .Participating institutions:

- UNAM - México
- OU - Netherlands
- Fern Universität Germany
- UNED - Spain

2. Established academic networks:

- Law: UNED, UNAM, OU, Fern
- Psychology: UNAM and UNED
- Education: UNAM and UNED

Virtual mobility in Campus-net;

First Call - Course 2012-2013.

3. Subjects offered by Academic Network

- Law 33
- Psychology 11
- Education 17

4. Students enrolled according to university of origin:

- UNED 6
- UNAM 11
- OU-NL 2
- Fern Germany 2

Virtual mobility in Campus-net;

First Call - Course 2012-2013.

5. Grants awarded:

20 scholarships

6 Coordinators Faculties

Budget: € 7,379.3

Virtual mobility in Campus-net;

First Call - Course 2012-2013.

As a general conclusion we can say that the UNED (outgoing) students who studied at other universities were very satisfied with the experience and the incoming students at UNED showed different opinions, some of them being negative.

Virtual mobility in Campus-net;

Second Call - Course 2013-2014.

1 .New participating institutions:

- University of Quilmes (Argentina)
- University Nettuno- (Italia)

•Third Call - Course 2014-2015.

- Fern Universität Germany

Virtual mobility in Campus-net;

Course 2015-2016.

1 .Participating institutions:

- University of Quilmes (Argentina)
- OU - Netherlands
- Fern Universität Germany
- University of Hawaii
- University of Gante

Virtual mobility in Campus-net;

Course 2015-2016.

Established academic networks:

- Law: UNED, OU, Fern
- Psychology: UNAM and UNED
- Philology: U Hawaii, Gante and UNED

Virtual mobility in Campus-net;

Conclusions after this period:

1. The universities sign with the UNED two-year minimum duration agreements establishing the basic pillars of the Program, and general commitments.
2. Annually, the offer of subjects of each institution is renewed, as well as the number of students that will be accepted and sent.

Virtual mobility in Campus-net;

Conclusions after this period:

3. Each institution establishes an internal offer to which its students submit their applications.
4. Once the selection has been made at the institution of origin, it will send the list to the destination, which will communicate how the registration will take place taking into account the different academic periods.

Virtual mobility in Campus-net;

Conclusions after this period:

5. Once the course has been completed, the institution of destination undertakes to send the corresponding certificate to the institution of origin of the student

Proposals

- New partners are wellcome at UNED
- Why not set up a virtual campus eadtu
- Virtual assesment
-