TRENDS IN LEGAL EDUCATION INNOVATION AND THE TECHNOLOGY MARKET TRENDS THEY MIRROR

Carla L. Reyes
Assistant Professor of Law & Director of Legal RnD
Michigan State University College of Law
July 24, 2018
THE MIRROR EFFECT

• Emergence of Robo-Lawyers and Self-Help Subscription Websites
• Client-Side Technology that Intensifies Demand for Lean Legal Services
• Emerging Technologies: Artificial Intelligence, Blockchain Technology, Autonomous Vehicles
• Emergence of Technology Clinics
• Post-Degree “Incubator” Programs; Legal Tech in Podium Courses
• Substantive Changes to the Curriculum
ROBO-LAWYERS
Chat-Bot Lawyers
Moneyball Lawyering
Litigation Outcome
Prediction
Artificially Intelligent
Research Assistants

Rise of the Robolawyers
How legal representation could come to resemble TurboTax
JASON KOEBLER  APRIL 2017 ISSUE
Focus on innovation
Sometimes
Interdisciplinary
Varied Structures
Legal Hackathon Culture
CLIENT-SIDE TECHNOLOGY PRESSURES

Technology Audits for Lawyers

Artificial Intelligence to Review Bills

Legal Spend Management
TEACHING LEGAL TECH

Integrating Technology into “Podium” Classes

Incubating Law Practice Through Post-JD Programs
Emerging Technologies

• Artificial Intelligence
• Blockchain Technologies
• Smart Contracts
• Autonomous Vehicles
• Robotics

New Curricular Offerings

• Coding for Lawyers
• Blockchain Law and Policy
• Autonomous Vehicles
• Artificial Intelligence and the Law
• Technology Transactions Skills
EMERGING COMPETENCIES AND CURRICULAR FOCUS

- Practice Experience
- Process Management Experience
- Technology Savvy
- Legal Services by Design
- Experiential Education
- Bringing Legal Technology into the Classroom
- Classes that teach technology equally with law
- Encouraging students to think outside the box by teaching outside the box